SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re:

Case No. 14-48984

JESSICA POWELL-WIGGINS,

Chapter 7

Debtor.

Judge Thomas J. Tucker

_____ /

ORDER DISMISSING CASE

On May 30, 2014, the Court entered an order entitled “Order Regarding Apparent Improper Joinder of Debtors” (Docket # 10, the “May 30 Order”), which required Debtor to (a) “file an amended bankruptcy petition that removes all reference to any limited liability company, so that it is clear that this entity has not filed bankruptcy in this case;” (b) “serve on all creditors: (1) a copy of this Order; (2) a copy of the amended petition; and (3) a notice stating that the only debtor in this case is the individual;” and (c) “file a proof of such service,” all, “no later than 7 days after the entry of [the May 30] Order.” The May 30 Order provided that “[i]f Debtor does not timely comply with all of the above requirements, the Court may dismiss this case, without further notice or hearing.”

On June 3, 2014, Debtor filed an amended bankruptcy petition (Docket # 11). But Debtor has not done any of the other things required by the May 30 Order, and the deadline for doing those things was June 6, 2014.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that this bankruptcy case is dismissed.

Signed on June 09, 2014
